

Concavity properties for solutions of elliptic and parabolic systems

Paolo Salani

Università di Firenze

I will present recent results on power concavity of solutions to parabolic equations and systems with power concave initial data in convex domains. This is a joint work with K. Ishige and K. Nakagawa.